STAT 3. Call from Larry Storch, in the Legal Adviser's office at the Departmen of State. Storch said that the State Department had received a request from Senate Foreign Relations Subcommittee on International Operations Chairman George S. McGovern (D., S. Dak.) for interviews with State Department personnel to be held on the record (i.e., with a transcriber taking verbatim notes). Storch wanted to make sure
STAT 3. THIRD AGENCY Received a call from Larry Storch, in the Legal Adviser's office at the Department of State. Storch said that the State Department had received a request from Senate Foreign Relations Subcommittee on International Operations Chairman George S. McGovern (D., S. Dak.) for interviews with State Department personnel to be held on the record (i.e., with a temperchent taking verbating notes). Storch wanted to make sure
STAT 3. THIRD AGENCY Received a call from Larry Storch, in the Legal Adviser's office at the Departmen of State. Storch said that the State Department had received a request from Senate Foreign Relations Subcommittee on International Operations Chairman George S. McGovern (D., S. Dak.) for interviews with State Department personnel to be held on the record (i.e., with a transcriber taking verbatim notes). Storch wanted to make sure
STAT 3. Call from Larry Storch, in the Legal Adviser's office at the Departmen of State. Storch said that the State Department had received a request from Senate Foreign Relations Subcommittee on International Operations Chairman George S. McGovern (D., S. Dak.) for interviews with State Department personnel to be held on the record (i.e., with the transcriber taking verbatim notes). Storch wanted to make sure STAT STAT 3. Call from Larry Storch, in the Legal Adviser's office at the Departmen of State. Storch said that the State Department had received a request from Senate Foreign Relations Subcommittee on International Operations Chairman George S. McGovern (D., S. Dak.) for interviews with State Department personnel to be held on the record (i.e., with a typescriber taking verbatim notes). Storch wanted to make sure
STAT 3. Call from Larry Storch, in the Legal Adviser's office at the Departmen of State. Storch said that the State Department had received a request from Senate Foreign Relations Subcommittee on International Operations Chairman George S. McGovern (D., S. Dak.) for interviews with State Department personnel to be held on the record (i.e., with a transcriber taking verbatim notes). Storch wanted to make sure
STAT 3. Call from Larry Storch, in the Legal Adviser's office at the Departmen of State. Storch said that the State Department had received a request from Senate Foreign Relations Subcommittee on International Operations Chairman George S. McGovern (D., S. Dak.) for interviews with State Department personnel to be held on the record (i.e., with a transcriber taking verbatim notes). Storch wanted to make sure
STAT 3. Call from Larry Storch, in the Legal Adviser's office at the Departmen of State. Storch said that the State Department had received a request from Senate Foreign Relations Subcommittee on International Operations Chairman George S. McGovern (D., S. Dak.) for interviews with State Department personnel to be held on the record (i.e., with a transcriber taking verbatim notes). Storch wanted to make sure
STAT 3. Call from Larry Storch, in the Legal Adviser's office at the Departmen of State. Storch said that the State Department had received a request from Senate Foreign Relations Subcommittee on International Operations Chairman George S. McGovern (D., S. Dak.) for interviews with State Department personnel to be held on the record (i.e., with a transcriber taking verbatim notes). Storch wanted to make sure
STAT 3. Call from Larry Storch, in the Legal Adviser's office at the Departmen of State. Storch said that the State Department had received a request from Senate Foreign Relations Subcommittee on International Operations Chairman George S. McGovern (D., S. Dak.) for interviews with State Department personnel to be held on the record (i.e., with a transcriber taking verbatim notes). Storch wanted to make sure
STAT 3. Call from Larry Storch, in the Legal Adviser's office at the Departmen of State. Storch said that the State Department had received a request from Senate Foreign Relations Subcommittee on International Operations Chairman George S. McGovern (D., S. Dak.) for interviews with State Department personnel to be held on the record (i.e., with a transcriber taking verbatim notes). Storch wanted to make sure
STAT 3. Call from Larry Storch, in the Legal Adviser's office at the Departmen of State. Storch said that the State Department had received a request from Senate Foreign Relations Subcommittee on International Operations Chairman George S. McGovern (D., S. Dak.) for interviews with State Department personnel to be held on the record (i.e., with a transcriber taking verbatim notes). Storch wanted to make sure
STAT 3. Call from Larry Storch, in the Legal Adviser's office at the Departmen of State. Storch said that the State Department had received a request from Senate Foreign Relations Subcommittee on International Operations Chairman George S. McGovern (D., S. Dak.) for interviews with State Department personnel to be held on the record (i.e., with a transcriber taking verbatim notes). Storch wanted to make sure STAT 3. Call from Larry Storch, in the Legal Adviser's office at the Department of State. Storch said that the State Department had received a request from Senate Foreign Relations Subcommittee on International Operations Chairman George S. McGovern (D., S. Dak.) for interviews with State Department personnel to be held on the record (i.e., with a transcriber taking verbatim notes). Storch wanted to make sure call from Larry Storch, in the Legal Adviser's office at the Department of State. Storch said that the State Department had received a request from Senate Foreign Relations Subcommittee on International Operations Chairman George S. McGovern (D., S. Dak.) for interviews with State Department personnel to be held on the record (i.e., with a transcriber taking verbatim notes). Storch wanted to make sure call from Larry Storch, in the Legal Adviser's office at the Department of State. Storch said that the State Department had received a request from Senate Foreign Relations Subcommittee on International Operations Chairman George S. McGovern (D., S. Dak.) for interviews with State Department personnel to be held on the record (i.e., with a transcriber taking verbatim notes). Storch wanted to make sure call from Larry Storch, in the Legal Adviser's office at the Department of State. Storch said that the State Department had received a request from Senate Foreign Relations Subcommittee on International Operations Chairman George S. McGovern (D., S. Dak.) for interviews with State Department personnel to be held on the record (i.e., with a transcriber taking verbatim notes). Storch wanted to make sure of State. Storch said that the State Department had received a request from Senate Foreign Relations Subcommittee on International Operations Chairman George S. McGovern (D., S. Dak.) for interviews with State Department personnel to be held on the record (i.e., with a transcriber taking verbatim notes). Storch wanted to make sure request from Senate Foreign Relations Subcommittee on International Operations Chairman George S. McGovern (D., S. Dak.) for interviews with State Department personnel to be held on the record (i.e., with a transcriber taking verbatim notes). Storch wanted to make sure with State Department personnel to be held on the record (1.e., with a transcriber taking votate the request would not complicate the that State's acquiescence in this request would not complicate the Agency's dealings with the Subcommittee. I thanked Storch for chacking with us and told him that the Memorangum of ongerstanding between the Director and Chairman McGovern provided for Similar procedures, which had in fact just been requested by the Chairman.
I told Storch that we planned to suggest some alternatives to the Chairman, but that we would go ahead with on the record in the west if this was his firm desire.
STAT
I I

Approved For Release 2006/11/27: CIA-RDP81M00980R000400100001-6